

2x power paper solar eclipse viewing glasses

What is a Celestron eclipsmart 2X Power viewer?

Celestron EclipSmart 2x Power Viewers are a must-have to view partial and total solar eclipses like our upcoming 2023 Annular Solar Eclipse and 2024 Total Solar Eclipse. The Celestron EclipSmart 2x Power Viewers Solar Eclipse Observing Kit will provide excellent views of solar eclipses for you and a friend--at 2X magnification!

What are eclipsmart 2X Power viewers?

The solar filters feature an orange tint, producing a natural look perfect for visual observing. The EclipSmart 2x Power Viewers come in a pack of two for you and a friend to share the views of a lifetime.

Are Celestron eclipsmart safe solar power viewers safe?

The Celestron EclipSmart Safe Solar Power Viewers are unlike many other solar eclipse glasses, because these ISO 12312-2 certified lenses have a 2x magnification and are essentially solar eclipse binoculars -- allowing you to get an even closer look at the sun and solar eclipse.

Why should you buy a solar eclipse viewer?

If you want to get an even closer look at the sun during its game of hide-and-seek, these viewers offer 2x magnification for observing more details. You only get two viewers, but the lenses are plastic instead of film so they're more durable than the most basic models. You also get a double-sided eclipse map to see the path of total coverage.

Are eclipse glasses foldable?

Go beyond traditional eclipse glasses. These foldable viewers feature sturdy plastic lenses that boost your magnification by 2x. Power Viewers fold flat when not in use and expand into a 3-D mini binocular when you're ready to view. Share the views with a friend on eclipse day.

Who makes eclipse glasses?

Approved by the AAS, Rainbow Symphony was founded over 40 years ago and is the largest manufacturer of eclipse glasses in the world. The company also makes solar viewers and solar filters for telescopes and binoculars, and its Clip-On Solar Eclipse Glasses are an innovative solution for those who wear prescription eyeglasses.
