Will Arcadia expand its community solar program?

Soon, Arcadia plans to continue expanding its community solar program as states move more and more towards favorable community solar legislation. Arcadia Power's new community solar program seeks to remove a few key historical barriers to entry for residential customers interested in community solar programs.

Where is Arcadia Power Solar available?

Currently, the Arcadia Power community solar program is available to customers in New York, Maryland, Massachusetts, Colorado, California, Georgia, New Hampshire, New Jersey, and the District of Columbia. Don't live in these regions?

How much does it cost to join Arcadia solar?

Joining Arcadia solar comes at no cost to you. The solar developer pays us for connecting people like you to the solar farm, so there's no enrollment fee. All you need to do is sync your utility account with Arcadia to determine your portion of the project.

Does Arcadia Power integrate with utility billing systems?

Beyond this primary benefit, Arcadia Power's ability to integrate with utility billing systems provides an innovative method to ease other possible pitfalls of community solar programs. First, it allows Arcadia to send you a single bill each month.

How does Arcadia function?

Arcadia directs part of your total power bill to the solar farm, managing the entire process for you. By combining everything into one bill, we guarantee that your total bill will be lower: the credits you earn from the utility will be larger than what you pay to the solar farm.

What happens if I cancel my Arcadia Solar Plan?

After the cancellation period, you will no longer receive solar savings and if you were enrolled in Auto-Pay with Arcadia, you will go back to receiving a statement directly from your local utility company. We will keep you updated during that time and reach back out to you via email when the cancellation process is complete.
