Arcadia is not a scam-- we're the nation's leading community solar subscription manager and we're proud to operate in New Jersey as a registered member of NJ's clean energy program." Arcadia says door-to-door canvassing is "a critical part of our effort to educate interested Township residents about our local community solar farm program."

Is Arcadia a solar power company?

Arcadia (formerly Arcadia Power) is not a power company or energy supplier, as it doesn't generate or sell electricity. Instead, Arcadia connects you to local solar farms and applies credits from those farms to lower your utility bill. Arcadia assigns you a share of a nearby solar farm's output when you sign up.

How much does Arcadia solar cost?

Instead of paying the full $37.89, you might pay $34.10 to Arcadia, saving $3.79 (a 10% discount). After the credits are applied, you'll still owe your utility provider for the rest of your energy usage. This means you'll pay your utility company for any charges not covered by the solar credits.
